

6 Month Internship in the UK

The host company

The company is all about heritage brands, small and medium-sized manufacturers, and exceptional artists and designers. Searching Europe for the finest, luxury high-end home-ware, this innovative retail specialist develops and contracts unique home accessories from the designer, artist or manufacturer. The focus is on quality, fine materials and craftsmanship. The products are marketed and sold online or via stores worldwide.

Role

This small company requires a creative person with a passion for high end, luxury goods to support their Marketing and Sales functions, particularly in web and social media. The role is to support existing clients and develop new relationships, as well as keeping wider audience informed of developments at the company via social media networking. There will also be the opportunity for customer interface and sales duties within the brand new showroom facility.
