

Start – Up Internship in Berlin Business Development / Sales

Mobile Event Guide brings conference and tradeshow organization directly to smartphones and tablets. Our approach renders printed brochures redundant – the mobile solution saves time and printing costs while offering new advertising opportunities for exhibitors.

We are dedicated to our vision of a mobile future: a future defined by incredible devices and applications, empowering users to manage their lives anywhere by a mere tap of the finger. Print is old and withered. Its last days are drawing near – with iOS, Android and BlackBerry eager to step up and take the spot.

Want to be part of this exciting process? Join our creative young team to create wonderful applications and fuel the mobile revolution in Germany. We are looking for bright, motivated minds, who enjoy creating things, love challenges and share our faith in the mobile medium.

Start : as soon as possible

Assignments:

- Fascinating projects in the field of Business Development
- Extending our customer base with new customer acquisition and supporting in negotiations with large groups
- Tracking of generated offers
- Supporting our operational day-to-day business

Requirements:

- Basic knowledge in business studies
- Motivation and personal commitment
- Distinct understanding of service and customer orientation
- Quick perception and independent working style
- Good written and spoken English

What we offer:

- Young and dynamic team in a harmonic working atmosphere
- Perfect opportunity for taking responsibility and personal initiative
- Openness to new ideas and impulses
- Genuine start-up atmosphere – our office is in the heart of Berlin, Europe's start-up capital
- Attractive pay with bonus component
- You will live in Berlin – the city to be!

Application: With your CV via e-mail to jobs@mobileeventguide.de

We look forward to your application!

www.mobileeventguide.de